We have charity places!

We're delighted to share that we have charity places available for the 2027 event. We'll be on site all day with our awareness tent, and we'd love you to join us for what promises to be a fantastic day out. Children aged 5 - 15 can take part too, so why not make it a family day from start to finish.

Use the link below to head to the sign-up page. Choose your distance, pay a reduced charity-place entry fee, and commit to raising vital funds so men and their families don't face testicular cancer alone. Signing up through us is cheaper than entering directly, all we ask is that you aim to meet the minimum sponsorship target.

If you have any concerns about fundraising, please get in touch. And if you're thinking about entering a team and want to check availability, drop us a line at: kirsty.owen-hayward@itsinthebag.org.uk

Distance	Entry cost / fundraising goal - Adults	Entry cost / fundraising goal - Children
2.5k	£15 to enter / £100 to raise	£10 to enter / £50 to raise
5k	£20 to enter / £150 to raise	£15 to enter / £75 to raise
10k	£25 to enter / £200 to raise	£20 to enter / £100 to raise
15k	£30 to enter / £250 to raise	N/A

Sign up here: https://runforcharity.com/charity-landing-page/its-in-the-bag-cancer-support/inflatables-bristol-local-partner

What's included

- An IITB T-shirt and fundraising pack
- Our iconic pair of orange pants
- An IITB water bottle
- Fundraising advice and support
- Epic finisher's medal for every participant
- Goodie bag waiting at the finish line
- Refreshing post-run drink

Have a question about the event, check out the FAQs:
https://www.ukrunningevents.co.uk/events/inflatable-5k/bristol-somerset-2027/faq